

Ancient Italy About 500 B.C.

Which statement best explains the location of the Greek settlements shown on the map?

- A They were easy for Greek sailors to reach.
- B They were in a secure inland location on the continent of Africa.
- C They were defended from invasion by the Apennine Mountains.
- D They were close to the Greek settlements of Corsica and Sardinia.

2. Which group of people controlled the northern part of the Italian Peninsula in 500 B.C.?

- A the Romans
- B the Etruscans
- C the Greeks
- D the Carthaginians

